

FLANSHAW ROAD SCHOOL CODE OF CONDUCT

At Flanshaw Road School we believe

*"Everyone is doing the best they can, in the situation they are in,
with the skills they have, at the time."*

We want our turangawaewae to be a place where the following principles become our
'Kawa' – 'How things work here'.

Whakaute: Respect

- Students are treated respectfully and are respectful in return.
- Parents are treated respectfully and are respectful in return.
- Staff are treated respectfully and are respectful in return.

Tō ō taringa: Careful Listeners

- Students feel listened to and where students listen in return.
- Parents feel listened to and where parents listen in return.
- Staff feel listened to and where staff listen in return.

Mana: Powerful / Empowered

- Students feel empowered and that power is not abused.
- Parents feel empowered and that power is not abused.
- Staff feel empowered and that power is not abused.

Takohanga: Responsible

- Students take responsibility for doing good and minimizing harm to others.
- Parents take responsibility for doing good and minimizing harm to others.
- Staff take responsibility for doing good and minimizing harm to others.

Manaaitanga: Ethical

- Students are truthful and ethical with others and self.
- Parents are truthful and ethical with others and self.
- Staff are truthful and ethical with others and self.

*Nau te raku, Nau te rourou, Ka ora i te iwi.
With your contribution, and our contribution, the people will be well.*